

SUMMER IS A STATE OF MIND.

Bald Head Island, North Carolina

Never mind the calendar.

On Bald Head Island, we believe summer is a perpetual state of mind.

Just two miles off North Carolina's southern coast, visitors to our shores exchange mainland worries for salt air, sunshine, and a relaxed attitude, no matter what month it is.

While nature takes top billing here, the built environment is exceptional, too. A top-rated seaside golf course, oceanfront beach club, and tranquil day spa offer diversions for the entire family.

You'll arrive by ferry and travel the island by golf cart or bike, rather than car, so you won't experience a single moment of traffic. You also won't encounter crowds—with 14 miles of beach and endless acres of marsh and maritime forest to roam, finding peace and quiet is a piece of cake.

What you will discover are real experiences in an authentic setting— from full moon kayak trips, to turtle walks with loggerheads, to treks to the top of a 200-year-old lighthouse.

A large, light-colored house with a wrap-around porch and a white picket fence, set against a sunset background on a beach. The house has a prominent gable with two circular windows. The porch is enclosed with a white picket fence. The scene is captured during sunset, with the sun low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the landscape. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. The foreground shows some greenery and a sandy area.

Come see us and see for yourself—on Bald Head Island a carefree summer feeling lingers 365 days a year. And from the moment you set foot here, you'll be on island time.
